I don't want nothing this year. I just want time with my mom and family. Most of my family have to work hard to keep my family alive like my grandparents. And my great-grandparents. We want them alive and healthy too. I want to sing in the choir and play with them at church and to have a nice Christmas with them. And I want my great-grandparents healed from dementia because it is messing their mind up. I want money to help them pay their bills.
